INSPIRING GENERATIONS THROUGH DANCE FOR 46 YEARS

PROJECT RELEVÉ, RAISING THE BARRE

The mission of our non-profit campaign, Project Releve, is to inspire people, young and old, to rise above all expectations and motivate them to raise the barre for our community through the power and magic of ballet.

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Through the Chow Endowment, established in 2018, we offer $100,000 annually in financial aid to students of Westside School of Ballet whose families cannot afford ballet training for their children.

RIISING YOUNG LEADERS

Through the Nutcracker, the Spring Performance and educational outreach, our dancers at Westside Ballet explore their creativity, while developing immeasurable life skills such as teamwork, self-discipline and leadership.

CONNECTING COMMUNITIES

We cultivate and inspire a love of the classical arts by providing affordable ticket prices to the community, educational field trips for over 2,000 5th graders throughout the city, as well as complimentary tickets to families in need.

Yvonne Mounsey 100

Celebrate with us to pay tribute to Westside Ballet's founder, Yvonne Mounsey, with a Centennial Gala performance honoring the past, present and future of this community gem, showcasing the company, alumni and guest stars in the masterworks of George Balanchine and Yvonne Mounsey.

OUR LEGACY

YVONNE MOUNSEY & ROSEMARY VALAIRE

founded Westside School of Ballet in 1967 and the performance company, Westside Ballet of Santa Monica, in 1973, where they trained generations of dancers.

ROSEMARY VALAIRE was a former soloist with Britain's Royal Ballet from 1946 until 1954 and held the prestigious Solo Seal. For over three decades she taught thousands of young dancers to love and excel in the beautiful art of ballet with her classic Royal Ballet style.

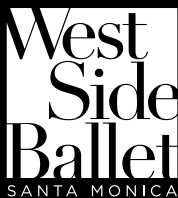

As a principal dancer with New York City Ballet, YVONNE danced the lead in numerous ballets for George Balanchine, absorbing his technique and teaching style. She imparted this sensibility to the Westside Ballet Artistic Staff and built a faculty that continues her tradition of excellence in the development of the student as an artist.
